THIS CAUSE having come before this Court and this Court having reviewed the file and being otherwise fully advised in the premises this Court finds that there is good cause shown for appointment of a Reunification Counselor and that such an appointment is in the best interest of the child(ren) in this cause. The Court finds that both parties have knowledge of this Order and each party has the ability to comply with its terms.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED for the parties involved that Monika Logan, M.A., LPC, LSOTP (Texas Premier Counseling Services, PLLC), (972) 895-2502, 2770 Main St., Suite 159, Frisco, Texas 75033 is appointed as the Reunification Counselor.

Each party is ORDERED to contact the Counselor’s office within three (3) business days of the signing of this Order, to schedule an initial appointment, to provide a copy of this Order to the Counselor, and to complete intake paperwork as directed by the Counselor. In the event a mutually-agreeable appointment time and date cannot be set, the Counselor shall select a date and a time for the initial appointment and each party is ORDERED to cooperate with the Counselor in scheduling and to attend as directed by the Counselor. Each party is ORDERED to provide copies of all current Orders, including the currently court-ordered parenting time schedule, to the Counselor and to provide changes or updated Orders to the Counselor within three (3) business days of such Orders being signed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Counselor may meet with the parties or the child(ren) individually, jointly with siblings, or with one or both parents, or with other household or family members as they mutually deem appropriate.

Before requesting the child(ren) to meet with the Counselor in person, the Counselor will first: (1) meet with both parents (individually and/or joint as deemed appropriate); (2) review prior counseling, Court Orders, and other documentation to assess the circumstances and situations that have fostered conflict and/or may be continuing to create conflict between the parties and the child(ren); the Counselor will not review audio and/or video files unless both of the parties’ attorneys have agreed in writing for such review and/or the Court has ordered such a review, and (3) discuss with both parents the reasonableness and appropriateness of reunification prior to requesting in-person appointments with the child(ren).

Each party shall fully comply with the Counselor's request in conducting counseling, including, but not limited to, ensuring that the child(ren) are transported to and from scheduled appointments in a timely manner and exercising parenting authority to require that the child(ren) attend and cooperate with counseling treatments and interventions.

IT IS ORDERED that each parent shall cause the child(ren) to be transported to any appointment that is scheduled by the Counselor during that parent's possession time, even if those sessions do not involve that parent, or if those sessions involve the other parent. If specifically requested by the Counselor, a parent may bring the child(ren) when it is not that parent's possession time, picking the child(ren) up and returning the child(ren) to their school, daycare, or other location that is outlined in the parties' current Court Orders at the time and manner designated by the Counselor.

DURATION OF THERAPY

IT IS ORDERED that therapy shall continue for a minimum of six (6) months, with reevaluation of the necessity of continued services based on the parties' progress in meeting the Reunification Counseling Goals as noted in "Attachment A."

IT IS ORDERED that the duration, frequency, location, and persons in attendance for each session with the Counselor shall be left to the discretion of the Counselor, who is specifically authorized to notify the Court if any party is failing to comply with this Order or other Orders of the Court.

COMMUNICATION

IT IS ORDERED that the Counselor may communicate and share information with the parties, the parties' attorneys, any Parenting Facilitator appointed in this case, any of the parties' or the child(ren)'s Individual Counselors, and/or any other professional in connection with this Order as deemed necessary by the Counselor.

IT IS ORDERED the parties shall execute any authorizations as requested by the Counselor to enable the Counselor to receive or provide information about the parties or the child(ren) in question. The parties shall notify the Counselor in writing within twenty-four (24) hours of any changes in their contact information, legal representation, residency, or occupants of their home.

Should the parties be ordered to utilize "Our Family Wizard" or any other co-parenting tool, the parties are ORDERED to complete necessary forms for the Counselor to have access.

TERMINATION

IT IS ORDERED that counseling with each party shall continue at the discretion of Counselor and that services by the Counselor will cease when progress towards counseling goals have been met, or if no progress is being made, or if it is deemed appropriate by the Counselor that another Counselor is necessary.

IT IS ORDERED that all Reunification Therapy shall immediately cease if: 1) the parties enter into a written agreement to cease Reunification Therapy; or 2) either party files a motion with the Court to stop reunification counseling. The parties agree that if a motion is filed pursuant to this paragraph either party can set a hearing on that motion to determine if Reunification Therapy should continue, if any modifications to this Order should be made, and if either party should be ordered to pay attorney fees if the motion was not filed in good faith.

RECOMMENDATIONS AND REFERRALS

IT IS ORDERED that the Counselor may make recommendations and referrals for Individual Therapists for the child(ren) should an additional therapist be necessary, and the parents are unable to agree on an additional therapist. IT IS ORDERED that neither parent(s) seek, place, and/or initiate the child(ren) with a counselor who is not first made known to the Reunification Counselor, and/or without the prior approval of the Reunification Counselor. The Court ORDERS the following provisions regarding the parent's cooperation with counseling:

The parties have been advised that successful treatment may require one or both parties change their own behavior in order to support their child(ren)'s needs. The Counselor may request specific changes by the parents in such areas as setting appropriate limits for child(ren), encouraging child(ren) to express feelings and solve problems appropriately, listening to the child(ren)'s concerns, actively supporting child(ren)'s independent relationships, and shielding the child(ren) from parental conflict. The parties are ORDERED to make reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Counselor's requests in these areas.

Reunification Therapy is not a substitute for a Child Custody Evaluation within the terms of the Texas Family Code; therefore, the Counselor shall not make recommendations as to the conservatorship of, the possession (i.e., Parenting Schedule) of, or access to the child(ren) in question. The Counselor will not make any related parenting time decisions, and will only be assisting to implement a previously agreed upon Parenting Plan as outlined by the Court. The Counselor may also provide updates to the parties, the parties' attorneys, and/or the Court regarding the child(ren)'s and/or the parents' progress, cooperation, and/or behavioral observations. The Counselor may make recommendations to the parties regarding changes in the parent-child relationships (i.e., conduct) that may be helpful to the parties in implementing the Court's Orders.

The Counselor shall report to the Court as deemed necessary regarding the progress of counseling. This may include but is not limited to the parties' cooperation, participation, compliance, payments, and/or any other issue(s)/concern(s) that the Counselor deems necessary that may impede the reunification process, and/or for which the counselor believes necessary to benefit the child(ren) in fostering and/or sustaining a healthy relationship with both parents.

The Counselor may elect to provide Status Updates to the attorneys and/or the Court at a duration(s) deemed at the sole discretion of the Counselor and/or at a minimum interval designated by the Court. Unless otherwise addressed above, the fee for a written Status Report, will be divided equally between the parties.
